

Pop-Up Innovation Hub!

Introducing a new Pop-Up Innovation Hub right here in the heart of Downtown London!

The Covent Garden Market is pleased to present an exciting new innovation hub for vendors, available for daily rent. Innovative artisans can set up shop in our pop-up shop locations, located right in the center court of the Market! It is the perfect spot for online entrepreneurs who want to have occasional space to meet their customer base. This space has lots of space to set up items on tables or hang on the rustic beams within the space. We are hand picking vendors who are looking to expand their businesses, have the skills to market themselves and want to pop up in the Market! The ideal pop-up vendor is an innovator with a beautiful handmade product who wants to introduce their product to the world. The space is equipped with one glass cabinet or 8-foot table; however, you are free to bring any decorative pieces to add your own touch to the space. Please fill out the application below to become part of our new innovation hub experience!
